

Let Your Students Tell the Story! – Presented by Stacey Peters

AGENDA

June 13, 2016

<http://wikispaces.PBLApps.com>

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 8:30 – 8:45 | Introductions (the Google way!): bit.ly/PBLappsintros |
| 8:45 – 9:00 | Intro to PBL with discussion *video (http://www.edutopia.org/project-based-learning-introduction-video) *what do YOU do in your classroom? |
| 9:00 – 10:00 | Using Animoto for Project Based Learning *Animoto.com – discuss general account, premium account, and educator acct. *Demonstrate Animoto creation, participants create account and create a short Animoto video |
| 10:00 – 10:15 | BREAK |
| 10:15 – 11:30 | Using Google Maps and Google Earth for PBL *Example (http://www.gelessons.com/lessons/) *maps.google.com – discuss difficulty level from beginner to advanced *Demonstrate Google Map creation, participants create their own maps *show Google Earth iPad App |
| 11:30 – 12:30 | LUNCH |
| 12:30 – 1:00 | App Smashing *What is AppSmashing (video) *Discussion – how can you use AppSmashing in your class to promote PBL? *Student-created AppSmash (video) |
| 1:00 – 2:30 | In groups, create an AppSmash using a variety of applications and software programs. Be sure to include some of the applications covered in the morning session. Choose one subject area to develop the AppSmash for, and include a lesson plan using the template provided. |
| 2:30 – 3:00 | Share appsmash mini lesson ideas. Watch/view final products. |
| 3:00 – 3:30 | Complete evaluation forms. Print certificates if needed. Clean work areas. |